

Joy

A Life of Joy

Paul Solomon Reading 9202- L- 9158 - MA - DS - 1 - Hitachi, Japan, 3/18/88

Let life be a daily practice of contact with the flowers and that which grows: a constant mantrum; a constant, consistent mantrum of thanksgiving to the Source of Life. Rejoice in the opportunity to allow the Source of Life - that which is Living Love - to express itself through a vehicle in this environment, on this earth. In so knowing, in so understanding, you will build a source of constant joy, a life of happiness.
