

Angels and Inter-dimensional Beings

(Excerpts from the Paul Solomon Readings)

Paul Solomon Reading #0131 - L - 0092 - FA - 0001 - JDE, Atlanta, GA 02 /16/73

Question: We come seeking answers to the following questions: How can I recognize celestial beings and communicate with them? and Do I have a teacher or teachers with me on this plane?

Now it might be readily recognizable that to answer such question as is brought only in this first question as has been given, would require quite a discourse. And might even fill a number of volumes of books. But we will attempt to give in this manner.

First of all, that you would understand that nature of celestial being as you have expressed it here. For if you would see one, look about you even in this room at this moment and see all those gathered in this room. For are ye not celestial beings inhabiting these bodies that are prepared for service on this plane?

That which you would see then, would be the earthly manifestation or the vehicles being used, being put into service at this moment by celestial beings.

Then if you would further qualify the question to ask then concerning those of the Devic Order or the Angelic Beings or those servants for the Ministries of God, we would have you see in this manner. That that which you would consider the Devic Order or the elementals or the servants, the Angelic Hosts, we would see in this way.

That thou art Gods. Thou art the manifestation of the Creator taken in fleshly form (or using those manifestations of the physical earth, the physical atmosphere, that you might manifest in this plane.) It should be realized then, that if thou art the Creator, if thou wouldst be of His nature, you would understand then that such beings would have at disposal for use in service or for the manipulation, for the expression. That there would be those beings that are created by those of the Creator, or that Order that was set apart for the purpose of control or service to mankind, or the maintaining of contact between creature and Creator and service there between.

Then these would be beings that would be to you as the animal level or less than human existence, though not in the sense of the animal existence or the animal kingdom on this earth, for these are earthly expression of the Devic Order. Or that is, that on heavenly levels (or the inter-between, those astral levels of existence as do not come into manifestations that you would see) there are those servants of man that are for the expression of God and offer lessons or teachings or vehicles. Now, that then that you would see as the flying ships, or that as has been expressed as the flying saucers or the ships from outer space, might be seen then as angels. They are vehicles for the transportation of those consciousnesses from one level of manifestation to another.

And you would see that on those planets that surround the earth are those bodies that appear to be the physical bodies - like unto the planet on which you live - and as expressions or schools where these may go in entering or leaving earth levels. One then who would come from Venus would not be an angel, but would be transported thereby. This one, then, who would carry messages from earth to Venus or earth to Mars or to carry those beings to Saturn to be burned, would be the Angelic Order. Their purpose is not then evolution. Their purpose is not to come into the earth and raise themselves back to the status of Godhood, but for the service of those who are. These are the expressions of man and not in competition with man. Are not above or below man in order of evolution, for their evolution is separate and their evolution is not akin to that which you would go through. If there would be the giving of instructions, then, saying this one or that one is Devic or is of the Devic Order in living on the earth plane or in human existence, this would disqualify that one as being human or evolving in that strain that would be coming back to God as you know Him on your planet.

These are errors in the understanding. That which normally is meant by the psychics or by the spiritual readers who would see one as an expression of the Devic Order would in actuality be one who has come from those realms of Venus or Jupiter, where there is a higher level of schooling. And these have come in with this serene appearance that might be considered angelic and might be expressed as Devic then, for their likeness unto the son of God, for these are levels of purification.

Now, to further be aware of the answer to that question -- and we would incorporate with it that question which has been added at the end concerning the understanding or knowing of teachings from the higher Masters or the teachers or the inter-between or the Angelica Hosts who would appear- that you would see those things as have happened or have been recorded in Scripture and understand the manner under which they occurred. For those who communicated with the angels or with the teachers, the masters of the inner levels, had these things in common.

First of all, they always were alone, set apart. See the one whose name was changed to Israel as he set himself apart in a clearing in a wooded area at night and was visited there by the Angels, the manifestation of the God Forces. See the one Ezekiel then, as he rested by the side of the river and Elijah as he walked alone. And all of these, these who were the prophets, these who walked alone and communicated with nature, those expressions of God. And what was their purpose in life?

Study these men and understand. Were they given to the raising of families and to these things of earth, these things that keep men so earthbound and project the energies in so many different directions? How often these men were single and alone and had diversions of attention into becoming successful in earthly ways.

And did the Master even appeal to those worldly wise?

Then set apart thy purpose. Now understand, if one would communicate with those servants of God or those teachers from the higher planes, one must become attuned thereto. Their bodies then, must be seen as clear and purified and brought into subjection and perfection in this manner. The mind then, must be set on a single purpose and not diverted. Energies then, must be given to this single purpose and not allowed to stray.

That body often then, who would be tired and who would be hungry, would be that one visited by the masters, by the teachers, by those visions of the inner teachings in this manner for the reason that these bodies so starved of the physical sensation or the satisfaction of the senses, then are brought under control by the denying of the satisfactions that they may be further attuned to the levels beyond the physical level.

See that the body under these circumstances would not be relating to the physical level, but would be brought under subjection by the higher or mental or spiritual levels, thereby allowing self to become, as it were, an antenna for operating on those levels through which these would speak.

Know that like attracts like. Then raise those vibrations to that level that would be aware of those about. And know that even in these times of gathering, there are the many spirits forces about, that if the eyes were open and if the veils were lifted, you would not be able to cope with those many who would communicate and would attempt to make themselves known and would appear to you on the levels of the inter-between. But self then must be prepared for these contacts, for these teachings.

Now, for the particular seeker who asks concerning the teachers on other levels or higher levels, on spiritual levels. It would be well for you to realize that as one on your plane becomes interested and gives his attention to spiritual growth and is diverted from those things of the world and vows within his heart that his interest, his intent, is for the raising of self to higher levels, in so doing, those spiritual centers of the body are stimulated, and in the stimulation is produced a glow that is seen from other planes.

As this glow is produced, so these are attracted to others on this plane who produce this glow. Together then, they become or form a class on your plane, and as well on the inner planes. Now this often occurs without the physical meeting of these producing such a glow, these who are all members of one and the same class.

Often then, during the periods of night, all these assigned to the same class or the same level of teaching (and these are given, metaphorically that you might understand) go together for a single lesson, and learning together, develop at the same rate that there might be the discussion among them as they would meet on your plane, and those realizations, those passing from one to another of that knowledge for which each is ready.

And you may see this in action on your plane as one or another will bring up a thought or a message that has seemingly spontaneously occurred and a few in the group will react and will recognize this as truth. Others will not. This would indicate then, that a few are of one class. Those who did not, are of another and have not yet recognized or been taught on inner planes this truth being revealed.

See then, that as you reach higher and higher levels of spiritual growth, there are changes in those who are the friends and that place where you would live and those things that surround you. The colors that surround you will change, will evolve. Your appearance will change and will evolve, and so will the personality.

These then are the understandings that you would have of those lessons that come from inner planes.

As one then would advance beyond those classes or beyond those teachings as are given to all about on this plane, there is a tendency then, to become separate and to become a leader. These then, often are assigned to those masters on the levels of the inter-between who will concentrate on attempting to bring those indications of the future or those indications of that which need to be taught and learned on this plane to the particular mind of the seeker who has so elevated himself and set himself apart for the purposes of the teaching of those things of God.

Now be aware of that prophet of old who told of the vision of coming before those on inner planes, on inner levels, and hearing the crying voice saying, "Who can we send and who will go for us?"

This one, then responding, "Here am I Lord. Send me."

This then is illustration of that which you might understand here as being one who has evolved above the group and is volunteering himself for the service of channeling those words of the Divine or those words of the Master, those teachings from higher planes, that those about him seeking, struggling to learn, to serve, might understand those things of God.

Now how rare on your plane that one should thus come, separating himself from the pleasures of the flesh and that which is given to all other people. And realize that one who would come as the spiritual teacher, as the spiritual guide upon this plane, may often be recognize by the fact that he has set himself apart from those physical pleasures. And not often would be given then, to the living in high places and walking with men in high places, for these have despised those things of earth and given themselves to spiritual teaching.

These then are given that you might be aware of the nature of those who would be the spiritual teachers or guides from inner planes. And seek not that you might be assigned to this one or that one. And be aware of him who would name a name of a spirit guide or one on inner planes who would teach, for these are discarnates, and however highly evolved they might be or however highly they may consider themselves qualified as teachers, these are men like as you who have passed to the other side. And though they may seek to be of service and bring messages to those on your plane, be aware that thou art God and thou art the sons of God. And what kind of father would be the God who would not permit his son to appear before his face?

Then if thou wouldst know the things of God, go to the Father. Go directly before the Throne of Grace and present thyself as a sacrifice, as His son, given to learning those things of the Father and growing in Grace to become even as He would manifest in this world.

Question: Why is there an increasing frequency of UFOs?

Answer: Be aware that these are, as has been described, angels or messengers or vehicles used for bringing souls from one plane to another. Understand that although these are ethereal and not of the substance of this dimension, that as they are bringing souls to this dimension, so they become dimensional objects. Though they would operate beyond the laws of this particular sphere or the physical laws, yet must they operate briefly within those laws for the depositing of those souls as are manifest in this time.

Yet there is not an increased frequency of that which comes. There is only increased awareness of the coming of these. For more and more souls have begun to register within their memory these occurrences. So many are wiser and closer, so much nearer the veil, or nearer the seeing of that which happens in the next dimension as it comes closer into evolution or closer into being, then revealing itself to these. Coming so close in the developing of sight and these abilities to see and be aware.

Question: Why should we do about visitors from other spheres?

Answer: here are attempts within this time to build a greater familiarity with other beings, other expressions from this Universe. You will see with increasing frequency these visitors, these attempts for expression, until there is less of the fear, a greater understanding of the presence and these are accepted as common or acceptable.

Understand that there are inherent blessings in such coming to realize or recognize or accept these entries. Yet there are as well inherent dangers. When those becoming common place and accepted no longer alarm or would set up the defenses you seek, so that these can be upon thee even in the moment when not expected.

There is great help that can come from such communication. There is as well great danger. For in that time of the final wars, those wars will be fought among those people, not only among the people of this plane, but others interested in the welfare of the Universe, of this place. If there is a greater understanding and a higher purpose than thy purpose will be one with theirs. If not and if this is seen then individually, or selfishly, as attempting to protect the physical, or this earth at the expense of the Universe, then would be the greater blood??

Then set the purposes on the higher ideals of this universe, this expression of God and not for personally or the earth. For there are the attempts to lift the vibrations to change that nature of the earth, of the sphere as we know it, to greater harmony to that of the Universe and the assistance of these in doing so.

Become familiar then with other expressions of God that would enter here and would seek to be of service.

And pray often. And when you pray, pray not to such beings as are expressions of God, but to the God of such beings. Realizing then this is to be the common Father. Then begin seeing the self as brothers with all that are and that manifest and begin joining them that you would recognize good from evil, even in those coming from other spheres. For equally with that power of good that will come and be sent, there will be that power of evil, selfishness, who will enter here as well. Within.

Learn those powers of discernment. And that power will come from within. For God will recognize God.

There has developed in this one already an awareness of the innate ability to distinguish that which is true and that which is not true, coming from spiritual leaders or teachers. There is an awareness that there is this innate ability to separate that which should be believed from that which should not. It should be considered, then, that this innate ability is that which should be followed, as a spiritual teacher. That this need not be a guru or a master on this plane who would guide spiritual growth other than those who would give the advice to turn inward.

There should be the attempt to recall to memory all things of a spiritual nature, the attempts to realize that all things work together for good, because all things work according to nature laws or the laws of God. (Let it) be understood, a spiritual concept, search for the law which will cause the spiritual concept to work within the life, planes or in manifestation and as the laws are discovered, so will the spiritual concept be understood and be applied within the life.

Thus will come the growth. Realizing that there are natural methods for stilling the body, for stilling the mental attitudes, for turning inwards, as was given in the scriptures. That is the quiet times may be heard the still, small voice, particularly for this one this times of sleep would be instructive times, for there would be difficulty in quieting self, the meditation state, at earlier period of the day. There would be a period available to this one by rising earlier in the morning and giving this time to solitude and quietness, to spiritual growth.

Materials to be read would not be so helpful at this time, at this period, especially during the schooling, as will be at later periods in life when there is greater interests in reading. But for the present period, all situations of life should be considered in the quiet times and it should be that for this one there is another, an advisor, who dwells within, and sends questions then to the advisor within in this manner and realizes that answers to these questions will in turn well to the surface.

Now see this as occurring in this manner, then you would form a cycle by sending the questions constantly to deeper and deeper levels within and soon you would find the recurring the opposite side of the cycle as the answers to the questions would pour forth from the heart. And there will be the understanding inside.

Now should be realized as well that all who attempt to contact spiritual planes, there should never be the expectations of a visible manifestation of spirits. For spirits who manifest visibly are those of lower astral planes. Those who dwell on higher spiritual planes have no visible form and do not take visible form other than for instructional visions.

Therefore seek those spirits who only come through to the mind, giving innate knowledge, innate knowledge as if it welled up from within, and not from an outer source. Always when seeking contact with higher spiritual [planes, seek it within. It comes only as realization. Not as visual or audible forms. So shall spiritual instruction come.

There should be reading of the Scripture and respect for the Bible for this one, for there is an innate respect for it and it should be developed. It should however, be realized that there are deeper levels of knowledge and understanding of Scripture than this one has yet discovered. And in unraveling these mysteries of symbolism and the realizations that will well up from within when reading the Scriptures, this one will develop new ideals and new concepts of the meaning of Scriptures and the purpose for it.

Then there should not be the arguing concerning religious ideal with others, for there is no growth to be found in this kind of sharing, other than stimulating interest within. Seek then to gain knowledge that might be shared. And seek that which is known of God to well up from within. For all that we may know of God is written already on our own hearts.

Question: By what methods of counseling may be used with regard to psychic trends and psychic counseling for this one? What is needed at this time?

Answer: Now understand, that that which is thy delights will be attracted to thee.

There are many forms of communication that the Father would sue that would assist in your understanding and your knowledge of Him. Often have the Angels been used and the Holy Archangels for messages for mankind. And there have been those beings that have appeared in many ways and for some there has been the communication with loved ones who have reached those higher planes and have offered themselves to carry, to transmit, to work and to talk.

There have been those beings returning to or from those other planes where there are the lessons, the teachings. And these have appeared in those forms most easily or readily acceptable by those who sought to communicate.

And see all about you, even in this time, for those others who communicate with their departed loved ones and find the spirit there and a message there.

There are those who communicate with the minds of others and find those truths, the teachings of the great men yet on this plane. There are those, further, who believe in the ministry of the message of the Holy Angels and in the giving of themselves in meditation or trance, they communicate with those angelic beings, those who would appear in that form as conceived in the mind of he who would communicate.

There are those who communicate and have communicated with those beings coming in ships, considered interplanetary beings. And there are those who read from the records that are written about individuals about the earth.

And finally, above all, there are the prophets who do not fail to believe that man may communicate with his creator, his Father, with God.

Now upon that plane you choose within yourself to communicate, so shall it be given to you.

And understand that that being or that intelligence that appears before you and offers himself as an intermediary or an opportunity to communicate or to understand, he will have presented himself in that manner, that way most acceptable to thyself, to thine own mind.

Then, if you would have communication with those of the flying ships or saucers or those beings from this planet or that, then give the attention thereto and study.

And if you would communicate with one gone from this plane but still loved, there is that pleasure in your heart that which seeks to be satisfied that will call and create and bring this one into your presence that there might be communication.

And if there be in the mind, in the creation, an idea or a form or a belief or a vision concerning the Christ and you would believe that He would look this way or that way and His personality would be such or so, then so will one with that personality or appearance be attracted and consider himself and represent himself to be thy messenger.

Yet again, if there be the dedication of the self, that bringing to life that which is in the self, that knowledge of the seed of the Father and attuning not to any form of communication or any man or messenger here or there, whether in the clouds or on this plane but attuning the self a certain way as to say:

"I recognize the seed of the Father God in me, and I become and develop that which I believe to be God's seed existing within the heart of myself."

Then there would be the command to the self, and even, yea, to God:

"Return to the Creator, return to the Father, from whence you came and communicate with Him whom thou knowest."

Then such communication will be pure and will be of Him who sent thee and that nature that is within thyself.

Now if there would be the need in the mind to produce the trap, lay thyself upon the couch and release the consciousness that there be no prejudice, that there be the setting aside of personality that others may be convinced, then let it be so.

Yet it need not be. For in that time that there is the awakening of the Christ within, that very nature of God Himself, so then in simply loving Him would you allow Him. And if you would have Christ speak through you, then become Christ. Such should be thy ministry. That there would be such a love of the Father, such a love of the Christ, that in opening the mouth to give forth the message to this one and that one they would be the words, the nature of the personality, the teachings, the knowledge, the wisdom, the presence, of the Christ.

And has this not been His command, that it be so?

But study to show thyself proved unto God, a workman that need not be ashamed, rightly defining the word truth.

And that which is given the most attention in the mind, that which the mind feeds upon, shall it become. For it is Universal Law that it be so. Thy body is that which has been made from that which has been taken in. So shall the mind feed. Then what do you feed the mind upon?

Not only thy readings and thy study, but in the daily activity, that which is taken in by the eyes, by the senses. In what manner do you judge? In what manner do you envisage that which is about?

How often do you look at this world through the eyes of the Christ? And how often in the opening of the eyes and looking about would you consider that you are of this world? Or will you look from above from Him who is within and see:

"This is the plane to which you have been sent for a purpose. I am not of this world. I come from my Father and I return to my Father. I abide here but for a time. And my purpose on this plane is to lift this plane a little closer to my Father."

And would you see it this way and begin the ministry is such a way, feeling that you have already overcome. Not that there is the struggle now to overcome, but already you have been with the Father and returned to Him, having set aside, for a time, to journey on this plane where so many need to be lifted a little closer to the Godhead. Then see self in this way.

And know that as you invite the Christ into the life, the mind, the heart and there is the feelings of unworthiness within saying, "The Christ cannot use such an empty vessel," understand that even before, He blessed a piece of clay and occupied it. As in that day, so in this.

And there was found in that piece of clay that one, so realizing the presence, the nature of self to be that of the Father, so will that vessel be so filled with His vibration and that which He has accomplished already on this plane, that He would begin even then, on that level of His greatest accomplishment, and beginning at that level, rise above, accomplishing more than was accomplished through Jesus the Christ on this plane.

And who would be that one to offer such a vehicle for redemption?

Question: What are the psychic abilities that can be used to further God's plan on earth? And what techniques can be used to increase the effectiveness of these?

Answer: It would be well, just in regarding all those about that you would look in their eyes for understanding and seek to be of service. As you look at others on your plane and their frustrations, their needs, desires, you will find developing in yourself a better ability to emphasize and to understand that about them, as well as about thee, are gathered a host of witnesses. And if there be that communication between yourself and them, the forming of a bond, a link of love, it will then give us opportunity to communicate through their witnesses, their records.

The easy opening of the hearts between you on your planet will allow us to know what may be given you from their records that you may communicate with them. You see, the forming of a link of love or a caring is your desire to be of help, of assistance and your desire to see others through their problems. That will give us an opening to their records.

See it in this manner. Each man, having about him a host of witnesses, of every learning, from him and with him, having common bond with him. These then have been called the guardian angels or directors who would keep him from dashing his foot against a stone. So it is they who, having been given charge of his records, will give or withhold information concerning him to the prophet or to those others about.

Now those given charge concerning the records of any individual will hide diligently the nakedness of those records, the nobility of him about whom the records are written from any many who would use them selfishly. The records are often hidden from he who has a great psychic gift but who seeks power and seeks to manipulate people through the use or direction of that gift.

But he who loves others will have about him a light that will cause those witnesses, those directors, those guiding angels to relax and open the records, those words that event they would desire to speak to that seeker, although they open to one who is obviously a divine.

If you would develop those greater psychic gifts, develop that desire to be of service to others, to love, to help lift those burdens. It is not a thing within you that might develop, but a link with others that will open those records for greater understanding.

Then, as often as you meet another on your plane ask, ask of us, "What have I that I might offer him to lighten his burden a bit?" For in that moment shall we speak that we know, that you may be of service. Speak and opportunities will be opened to you until those will be attracted, will come about to learn of Him who sent you.

It becomes less important that I do this work and more important that this work may be done.

Now realize that time and space do not exist. Patience does. You think of time and space as dimensions. I say to you that patience is a dimension. You say that you are limited by time and space, and I say to you that you are limited only by patience. Understand patience. If you would develop faith, love, understanding, but have not patience, you will not be able to acquire that which you know and have developed. This is universal truth. Open thy heart to understanding that you may give. For many will come unto your presence to feel the warm vibrations. The heart's capacity for love is infinite. Be not afraid to love.
