

Paul Solomon Reading 0645

RP – 0134 – GR – 0002, July 4, 1975 Prophecy reading

You will have before you the fellowship of the inner light and our relationship to the United States and the relationship of the United States to the Universal Forces, its karmic destiny, ideas, and purposes. We request guidance and indications concerning the following questions:

Question 1: Please comment on the significance of the year 1975 and the unfoldment of the hierarchical plan for this world as described by Master D. K. through Alice Bailey.

Answer 1: Yes, we have the records and those consciousness gathered, the witnesses who would speak concerning these things, and your questions and intent. If we could cause you to see an image of the energies that occur about your plane in this time, you might see first of all a pinpoint of light about the earth in areas here and the where consciousness' have been awakened to the destiny of man and his movement toward his intended state. The points of light in many are individuals who have come through great tribulation and training and are washed in the blood of the lamb and striving individually, and in many groups brought here and there to form a light, as you have gathered here. These have been in some instances separated one from the other that they might better grow and impregnate the area where they are found.

Now in every place that you might look down and see a place of light, you would further see for every one, a thousand, ten thousand angels, with drawn swords that fill the atmosphere, if you would, about this place with potency, a hushed waiting, a feeling, a sense, of preparation. And beyond that, those who have lived through experiences here, a million or more of the brethren, who have learned from time in plane and have risen above it, and as it were, hold almost the breath each time a soul enters your plane in this time, a feeling almost counting. Those who enter for the purpose of lifting the consciousness and those of the two sons of darkness who find their way as a counterbalance

There is a delicate equilibrium that is maintained and, as there is a moving toward those changes as will come, a great anticipation fills the universe with electricity. Those looking down then on Divine Plan pour their vials of incense, the prayers, before the Throne of Grace, and their care, their pleading, the prayer of the saints, enters in this time as a wave of love lifting, and especially are those born in this day and this time and this year, impregnated with that intent and purpose.

There is that balance to be sure, yet this is the time for this year, marks as it were, the ending of the times and the times and the entry of the half time. So that all that you see in this latter time will be accelerated, experiences and changes will occur more quickly. Evolution, as you know it, will be speeded beyond that you have ever recognized in this life wave, in this root race. A period of counting down, as it were, a period of acceleration of the changes until they reach that dramatic point when there will be no more earth, as you know it. And a new heaven and a new earth will usher in a new age of peace, of cleansing, of a new foundation for the New World .

This is s time, a time of judgment, but a time of judgment that comes with its balance; that is, that as often as there is such a judgment there is a measure of grace added. Those who will be judged may accept that pattern of grace. It is as if the Lord of Lords will look down upon any child who has accepted that great archetype, the Christ, and one who has claimed that archetype, that he strives toward, that as is his ideal, that judge, looking down upon that child will see, not that child and all his failures but only the face of the archetype, hidden in Christ as it were, as the ancients taught it, you see. This is a time of judgment. It is a time of power.

Never before in this life wave has so much power been available to those who would use it. Now you have seen power used, wielded in your lifetime by one who grasped an implement of power and put it to its utmost use. And you have seen the changes that occurred in the face of the entire earth as a result of it. A great portion of a nation wiped out, removed. Now that same potential is available now. How ill it be used? How can it? Understand that past this year (75) seventy-five the feelings, the attitudes, the intent of people, will never again in your lifetime be the same as before this year. Look back over twenty-five years, see what the attitudes and purposes, the hopes and ideals have been, success oriented if you will. In the coming twenty-five, survival oriented rather. And why?

Children, if you could but understand, it has been repeated again and again through time that when there came a time of great blessing, the children of the law of One were told by their prophets, tae off all that you have of value, all those things that men count of value, whether earrings and rings on the fingers, jewelry and gold, or this, or that, or the other. Bring it before the alter and drop it there, leaving all things, choosing rather that you love greater. And each time such a message has gone out from the prophets, those children have said, surely this is but a figure of speech. We will accumulate these things and take these to be an ideal, you see. Seldom have these brought then by choice, all such things and laid them on the alter and found a greater thing of worship. Then, failing to listen to the voices of the Masters, who give advice, then the Masters, are forced to let that overbalance come.

Every seven years of plenty come seven of famine. And that not given up willingly then, will be taken. And suddenly in the face of losing everything of value, look about you and you will find your neighbors, your brothers, your sisters, starving, looking at their gold bands and saying, what use are these? I would trade them for a scrap of fruit. Then, then they will be forced to look for those things of true value. Then, the attention will be turned from these things to God. And seeking God, they will find him. So it begins to come. Now, this is not necessary. This portion of the change not necessary at all, for he who will lose his life willingly, will find it. He who will cling to his life and things of value, those things will be taken away.

Choose which you will be, for in the cycle before this, there were a few, so very few, who set themselves apart leaving all things of value behind and got themselves to the mountain top and there, with only those things needed for survival, gave their time, all their time, all their thoughts, and energies toward worship. And becoming a great magnet, drew to themselves the utmost energies of the heaven until it manifested in God-man. Christ was born among them, in their midst.

And see it as an example, and do it in this time, for that same child, born in Bethlehem , that same consciousness, seek a door to enter this time. And a group setting themselves apart will usher him in, at the center of light. All these purposes have been set in motion. All the love, all the energy required to usher in the New Age, have been gathered about this place in this time and you will see, less than ten years hence, an overbalance, a tipping of the surface of the earth and earthquake and changes about you. And then, a few years of following, changes and more changes.

Watch the 5th day of May, 2000, for the time when again the planets will be aligned one behind the other across the sky, and the strain of magnetism will shift the surface of the earth until it take a new shape and form. Eighty four, two thousand, those are the years, a change in a great tribulation then a change, a change and the dawning of the New Age. These are the times. You have entered the half time.

How may be apply practical occultism to the manifesting of the cosmic plane for America ?

No man can apply that he does not understand, safely. Begin to understand and apply those laws by growing into them. Look for the laws, the Universal laws that govern your plane. Set them then, into effect, living according to the laws. This is a matter of growth, among each of you.

Choose the laws you will live under. This who live then according to the laws of the lesser plane, the fourth, will live in the fourth. Those who choose to live then according to those laws of the vital, the higher body, that give form to the fourth, will live in that. Those who step beyond then into grace, accepting that ultimate plane, becoming a tool of it, will find themselves living in that dimension, and having their needs provided from there. Then understand the plane you will live on and the laws you live according to. Enter that body.

The higher the body the greater the effect on the lower bodies. Then attuning to the highest purpose within you and living according to the laws there, not descending again into matter, but living on that plane, you will find the laws then, taking that effect about you. It has ever been so. Every Master who has walked the earth has found the laws, the atmosphere, the laws of the elements, of planets, of animals, from all manifestation of the fourth, subject to his lie in the third. And entering the second, finding himself master over third and fourth, you see.

Enter into the higher world. Higher life has been given then. Become the Christ. By making the Christ the Master of the life, you become one with the Master, becoming a Master, all lesser laws then becoming subject to that attunement.

As individuals and as a Fellowship what can we do to assure the unfoldment of America's potential bearing of the light?

Give yourself to a serious bearing of the light, yourself. For that you create about you spreads, and becomes the consciousness of a nation. There is a tenancy among you to see yourselves as holy and righteous, sanctified in the moments of attunement with God, but your image of your nation, built in your mind, and propagated and fed has become an image of a nation of corruption, of a corrupt government. Your thinking of it in this manner has relegated to it this destiny. The destiny has been changed in recent years because – the formation of the new image.

Only a decade ago, the people of this nation thought of this nation as guided of God, with a spiritual destiny. You now despise your nation and your seat of government. Even those spiritual among you consider it so, feeling as if you has lost control. Better you re-establish the image, that you re-establish that you pray for, lift it out of the mire, and think of it in a new way, a nation founded under God and guided by and of him. But you say, that we see does not seem so.

Yet, as often as you arise up in arms and pray with determination to rout out that which is not of the highest, you see a glimmer, a reflection, onto then dedicated to that principle moving to the fore. Yet, there is a bit of defeatism in these recent years, so that the nation, the government has become condemned to a new fate. Thus, those who guided the founding of this nation have heaved a heavy sigh, saying we cannot impress upon the minds of those, placed here, to carry forward this spiritual nation, its destiny. Thus, the destiny must move then, and must be taken to another seat of government, seeing itself as morally responsible, willing to take that responsibility.

If there could be among you those given to the rebuilding of the image, of the power behind the government of this nation, as Divine plan, as spiritually guided. If those about your nation could be persuaded to pray, believe, trust, restore faith in that system as set by those founding fathers, who prayed and invoked divine power and blessing in every way. The vivid period of crisis here, beginning in this month of this year, see it astrologically, for it will reflect here, the birth of this nation directly afflicted to Saturn in this time, that grim reaper, that planet of judgment, that reflection of Minerva, that angel of justice, the Divine Angel, Saturn.

A period of judgment and how will you be weighed in the balances? Will you be found wanting? The food will be cut off, and the result of it, you will find your nation not producing the food it needs, in that time of this affliction. It will afflict money and finance – all those things karmically tied to the sign of the birth of Cancer, that which feeds the nation, that which governs her emotions as well. Pray, pray and invoke that power that sets that planet into motion thus bringing about the higher reflection of that same truth, you see. Re-establish that faith. Reaffirm that leadership, pray.

Question 2: Please comment on the Kennedy assassination coming to the force again. Will the truth be known or revealed, and what are implications of such revelations?

Answer 2: The significance, primary of the returning to consciousness is that soul, himself, with those who surrounded him in that time, attempting to influence, to perpetuate, to communicate, to state that they feel should be known. There is a major attempt, the consciousness of these, to find justice. He is himself, influencing the minds of men, and attempting to channel, to reveal truth.

Yet, it will not be so widely accepted as to be understood. It will reflect however a purging, a seeking, a washing, an attempt to cleanse the self, the nation. Those concerned with the destiny of the nation are bringing these festering sores open for the cleansing in this and Saturn makes it possible. That angel, that angel, holds the scales, the balance, and a sword, a two edged sword, so that this is the time that make possible the cleansing, you see, with that cleansing the pain of seeing that which is being cleansed.

Question 3: What significance has the present month of July, 1975 for man's evolution? It has been referred to as the 'Critical Period', by James Gore of Black Mountain . What issues are involved and what response may best be made by us as a Fellowship and as individuals, to them?

Answer 3: Just this as we have just given, a time of judgment, a passing of the Angel of Judgment, upon this place in this time, a time of trial when those things of satisfaction will be withheld, a time of trying the determination of those as individuals as you ask, as that set before you, as that task given to do.

Anyone who picks up the torch, to bear it in this time, will be severely tired, for the light that you hold aloft will attract to you all darkness, will attract to you the moths to the flame, who will attempt to take your life, who will try you to the very soul, the very core. Be prepared for it if you lift aloft the sword, the torch, in this time. And he who would cast it aside saying, 'I am ready; I will not bear; I will not fly in the face of this judgment,' he is not worthy of me, but let him who recognized the challenge of truth, lift high the torch, knowing fully well that those who are irritated by its light will strike out. Those who proclaim themselves in this time, bearers of the light, forge into darkness against the fiery darks of the wicked.

Not just those who are of the darkness will suffer in this time. Those of the light, for a part of the time even more, only enough to set the flame, only enough to temper the metal. Thus established then and holding the flame aloft, those who come through those tribulations washing their garments white in the blood, these then become the model, the Avatar of the New Age, the New World, the teachers. Those who will not walk through the fire, will not return, will not come to lift these.

There is held out to you in this time, a challenge, a flame. Let those of the brave heart take it, accept it, a move with it. Be not discouraged by those little groups, here and there, who are tired and tired sorely, by all those false in their own concepts, those not living the ideals they express. They will strike out in attempts to snuff out the flames for it condemns them. Holding aloft your light, your torch will expose their darkness and they will attempt to extinguish from every side. Join not with those groups who seem not to have interference or difficulty, for they have no flame, no light. If there were a light it would attract that which is revealed by it, you see. That's the challenge of the time.

The 4th of July reading, a year ago, indicates that we are now in a cycle parallel to that in Israel before the birth of Jesus the Christ and are encountering cycles of karma which, can only be met with grace, as in that time. Please describe the cycle of karma we are presently in with respect to Atlantis and what our response should be to that.

The cycle you are now entering will fall directly parallel, that final cycle approaching the final break-up of the islands, the disappearance of the land below the waters, the final times. In this twenty-five years that remain, you will have those going out from you and establishing places of safety and places of hiding the records in the high places. Establishments of communities, establishments of centers that will survive and will be monuments wondered at, marveled at, by those of the New Age. One of those to be established in proximity to this place, a structure that will survive the changes and contain within it records. The cycle, the cycle, an opportunity to relive the time of the final breaking up, and in this time, to retain in those who will remain, and understand.

Not so long now until that initiate will open the tomb. Understanding will be given then, not acceptable to some, and you will find those poor souls recognizing truth, finding it unbearable, as the prophet said, 'Will cry for the mountains, the rocks, to fall upon them, to hide in their misery,' for truth will be revealed, and truth must necessarily condemn that alien to truth.

How would you face it in this moment if all acts of crime and evil that ever you have committed in the cycles of time, for some of you hundreds, for some thousands of returns I this plan, if all these were revealed before you in this time, how would you face it? You see. Oh you pray for the opening of the tomb. You look for the bringing to the surface of those records. If you knew what they contained, so many of you, you would pray that they be hidden another thousand years.

Understand that you pray for, children, when you pray. Not that you should pray that they be hidden, but better you pray that you might be ready for the accounting when it comes, you see. Be men before God, and say all of that effort has been committed in the selfishness, in the reaping to self, through these times, these cycles. I face and I see and with the grace of the Christ may I be counted one of His, and claiming that redemption, that power of His, let me become than an image of him, and see only his overcoming of the dread, sins of the world, that my record may be cleansed spotless white through the blood of the lamb that I will not have to face such, you see.

Those then who have refused to face and account, and attempt to balance will suddenly find that they have been condemning all this time, condemning them. Those who are ready then, will gladly accept and live it. Those who are not will see before them thousands more times of coming and facing and working. The truth will stand stark and white, condemning, fearful, awful, before him. Now the time has come for that. The tomb will be opened. There will be a time of greater popularity than has ever been, for there will be a dividing of sheep from the goats, the one the right hand and the other on the left. Can you not see that it must be so? Revealing of truth would do it; automatically it must do it according to universal laws.

See the separation that comes, the power then, for there will be formulae for the extraction of power from the atom. Will you understand? It has been given that power will be taken from the heavenly bodies. Anything that exists in the heavens exists in the smallest atom. It will be in the use of the crystal, in the use of the great sources of energy, you will find the key in the movement of energy, the atom. Energy is created constantly about you in every atom. Not a necessity for leaking oil here or there, not a necessity for channeling the energy of the sun, a necessity only, for capturing that already in motion about you. The air is alive with energy, the aura is alive with energy.

Formulae for the harnessing the direction of that energy will be discovered. Pray, pray, that you are ready for the direction of that energy, for then it will be discovered that the body of man can be perpetuated that you can be perpetuated. Then there will be attempts to change those laws of gravity, of magnetism, and those effected will actually be magnified rather than reversed. Natural law will take its course. The universe will be changed.

The earth will be imbalanced in the twinkling of an eye and all that need be washed away will be suddenly removed. A new earth will be born a new source of life, pure, peaceful for a thousand years. Then man will begin to discover self again, the selfish nature will rear his ugly head again, and for a period, self and self's duty will be allowed to reign, then another cycle.

That's the law.

That's the message.

We love you.

We are through for now.
