

Sin, Selfishness

Paul Solomon Reading 0045 - LH - 0021 - FA - 0001 - MD, Atlanta, Georgia, October 23, 1972

Now for the realization for this one, the acceptance of self and that which has been questioned as rejection from others. .. For this one feels no self confidence and expects to be rejected of those about.

It would be seen that there was given of that greatest Master this teaching, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." That is, the love for self comes first. that is respect for self. And one cannot love God without loving self, for self is the temple, the very seat of God. He is the very you of you. To lack respect for self is to lack respect for God Himself.

Now expect to be an emanation of the God force in this world. Expect to be a manifestation of God Himself. And then how can you expect to be rejected of your fellow man? For you are here as a messenger, an ambassador of the Divine, here to shed His light abroad, and to make His Presence known within this world.

Expect, then, to be accepted in this manner. See self as emissary of the Divine. Seek to manifest this. Seek to be a light in the world, and there can be no rejection on any plane. If there is no rejection of self, there will be no rejection from others. If there is no judgment of self, against self, there will be no judgment from others. Make not God a liar when He would promise that if you would confess your sins, He is faithful and just to forgive your sins and weaknesses.

This refers not only to sins of commission, but sins of omission. He will forgive thy weaknesses, as well and remember them no more. Now claim this promise and when this is claimed, see self then as acceptable. There can be no guilt. There can be no unworthiness.

See not self as unworthy, for thou art the Temple of the Holy Spirit. Thou art the light that He would depend on to shine in the world. And if you would not shine, who will do it for you? You have a place in God's Master Plan. There is not another individual in this world that can fulfill God's perfect plan for your life. You are a very special individual in this world and there can be no rejection of God's emissary to perform the task that He has set aside for you. See self in this manner and there will be no expectation of rejection from other individuals on this plane.

© 2007 The Paul Solomon Foundation